MIDDLETOWN, NJ Daniel P. Maloney, Past Exalted Ruler of the Middletown Elks Lodge #2179, and local event director for the Elks Hoop Shoot has announced the winners of the recent event. Held at the Croydon Hall gymnasium, the children competed in their respective age group, and scored more free throw baskets than others in their group.

Winners of the local event, will continue to the South Central District competition, where they will compete against winners of other Elks Lodges events. Winners of that event, will continue to a State, and Region competitions, and eventually to a National Shoot.

Winners of the Middletown Elks Lodge #2179 event were: Girls 8-9 Christine Borghese of New Monmouth, Girls 10-11 Drew Pedone of Keansburg, and Girls 12-13 Michelle Borghese of New Monmouth. Michelle was recently crowned Girls 12-13 Soccer Shoot winner in the Region II Soccer Shoot held in Martinsburg, West Virginia. The Boy age 8-9 was Cody Thompson of Port Monmouth, age 10-11 Nick Ciccone of the East Keansburg section of Middletown, and age 12-13 was Sean Wentz of Hazlet.

These local champs will all be recognized at the Elks Youth Awards Breakfast to be held March 14th at the Elks Lodge. Their families will all be invited to the awards presentation and a great breakfast prepared by fellow Elks.

The Middletown Elks Lodge #2179 is located in the Belford section of Middletown, and is a fraternal organization dedicated to helping those less fortunate than themselves. Their major programs center around the youth, Handicapped Children, Scholarships for academic students, and Hospitalized Veterans. For further information about the Elks, and their many programs, contact the Lodge at (732) 495-2733 or the lodge website at <http://middletownelks.com> for more information. The Lodge Hoop Shoot falls under the responsibility of the Youth Activities Committee, which is chaired by Past Exalted Ruler John Steakin of Keansburg.
