MIDDLETOWN ELKS LODGE TO RECOGNIZE YOUTH AT AWARDS BREAKFAST

BELFORD, NJ The Middletown Elks Lodge #2179 will conduct a Youth Awards Breakfast to honor the outstanding students and athletes in their programs. Under direction of Past Exalted Ruler John Steakin, Sr. of Keansburg the breakfast will be held Sunday morning March 14, 2004, 10:00 am at the Lodge.

The Youth Activities promotes and sponsors many programs for the youth of the area and is the support behind the Soccer Shoot program, Hoop Shoot program, and Student of the Month program.

These outstanding boys and girls will be recognized at the breakfast by the Lodge, and by the New Jersey legislature. Also to be recognized will be the overall Student of the Year, one male High School Scholarship recipient, (by the Lodge); one females recipient (by the Ladies Auxiliary) and in addition an extra $500 scholarship to the school of the winner provided by the Past District Deputies of the South Central District. The Scholarship Committee is under direction of Richard Niekrash of Middletown.

Each boy and girl and their family have been invited to attend the breakfast, along with the High School Counselors. Expected to attend and participate are New Jersey State Senator Joseph M. Kyrillos, Middletown Township Mayor Joan Smith, and Elks District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler William R. Faille, Sr., and Elks District Vice President Edward J. Hahn, IV.

Also participating in the breakfast will be nineteen youngsters who were sponsored to attend the New Jersey State Elks Peer Leadership Conference in early February. The Drug Awareness Committee of the New Jersey State Elks Association sponsors this program, and the Middletown Elks Drug Awareness
